MEETING HOUSE HILL CEMETERY | Methuen, Massachusetts

Meeting House Hill Cemetery is located on a 2.4-acre rectangular parcel of land bound by East, Arlington, Brook and Berkeley Streets. It was the site of the first Methuen meeting house (built in 1728) and is the only surviving major element of the original town center location. Many of the city's founding members and their families are buried here. The cemetery was added to the National Register of Historic Sites in 1984.

In 2019, a group of volunteers led by Bev Brown of the Methuen Historical Society, took on the task to inventory and compile an up-to-date index of the burial site. Referring to the book, Ye Catalog of Epitaphs from Ye Old Burying Ground on Meeting House Hill, published in 1893 by the Methuen Historical Society, the group of volunteers created this detailed map indicating grave locations. In addition to the inventory, the group cleaned existing stones and identified damaged stones for restoration and stabilization. We are thankful for the financial support from the Methuen Festival of Trees, Inc. We are grateful to the following volunteers whose hard work, enthusiasm, and dedication made this project a success: Earlene Daigeneault, Paul Daigneault, Carol DeLano, Janice Fugge, Gary Marcoux, Nancy Marcoux, Ken Peck, Chris Reardon, Nancy Reardon, Deb Rovinski, Richard Smith, Jodi Smith, Cheryl Torres, James Torres, Tim Torres, Patricia Vaillani, Andrea Vannett, Tim Vermette, Kristen Westaway, and George Wolfendon.

AN INDEX OF GRAVES FOLLOWS ON PAGES 2 - 10.
